PRESIDENT TO NAME BEXAR COUNTY DEMOCRATIC PARTY COUNTY CHAIR

CHOCO MEZA TO KEY ADMINISTRATIVE POST

SAN ANTONIO, TX: On August 18, President Obama announced his intention to nominate Choco González Meza, Bexar County Democratic Chair, to the Commission on Presidential Scholars. Referring to Mrs. Meza and to other nominees, the President declared, "I am grateful these accomplished men and women have agreed to join this Administration, and I'm confident they will serve ably in these important roles. I look forward to working with them in the months and years ahead."

Choco González Meza is founder of CGM Consulting. Previously, she was the President of American Sunrise, an organization that creates housing, economic and educational opportunities in local neighborhoods for working families. Ms. Meza previously served as Realtor and Property Manager for RE/MAX Associates from 2000 to 2005, where she was named a Top Platinum 50 Realtor Finalist for several years. Ms. Meza has also worked as a Senior Vice President for Housing Operations for the San Antonio Housing Authority, the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Intergovernmental Relations for the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, and as the Executive Director for Partnership for Hope. She holds a B.A. in Political Science and Health and Physical Education from St. Mary's University.
